

PAG OCCASIONAL TIMES

Welcome to the first edition of our newsletter. We have a lot on right now and decided this is a more interesting way of letting you all know!

Our 3rd AGM is coming up soon and you are invited to take part! Michael Jacques is spicing up the event with a Tai Chi demo. He is experienced in working with people who have special needs and even offers armchair Tai Chi! On top of that a buffet lunch is also provided.

Thanks to funding from Awards For All, Pag's MADD club for 9-16 year olds has successfully completed it's first year. We have some funds left over and been given an extension on the grant so drama and dance will continue until the end of May. By popular demand we are in the process of applying for further funding to develop MADD into a longer term project. So watch this space!

During February half-term we held PAG's childrens festival at the Westend Centre, Aldershot. This was a roaring success, with over 60 people taking part. We hope to make it an annual event. Our Easter event this year was also held at the Westend Centre. We had music with Mark T, storytelling with Aldershot Library and a fab entertainer called Mr Bubbles!

We are in the process of getting our own website underway, so you can see pictures from these events plus keep up to date with forthcoming activities, including fundraising and volunteering opportunities.

We first came together as a group of parents 5 years ago when the Rushmoor special needs playscheme was under threat of closure. This is the only special needs playscheme in the borough that is open referral and open to siblings. It runs for 3 weeks in the Summer. 5 years later and we are faced with the same situation. If you do not want to loose this life-line during the Summer Holidays, please contact us:
